NEW-YORK CITY.

St. John's Guild acknowledges the receipt of 77 79 making a total this year of $11,403 48. Mayor Hewitt d.d not come to the City Hall yes terday. The genial atmosphere of his New-Jersey country seat proved more attractive.

The display of foliage plants and caeti around the Union League Club-house is exceedingly attractive. Many young ladies recently from the country have forgotten to shed their tennis shoes.

The fashionable Fifth-ave. club that airs its pillows in the upper windows in full sight of passers-by ought to know better.

A Fifth-ave sign reads: "Sull'van robes upstairs." Well, what if he does? Does he also disrobe? Of what interest can this be to the public, unless the Sullivan be John L, perhaps!

A real, live princess keeps a millinery store in It is time to call in the book store sign: "Summer reading; novels at half price." Thus far the Herzog teleseme system is only in use fifteen blocks, connected with the police station in East Twenty-ninth-st.

The slab of a new style of ornamental table consists of a heavy plate glass mirror. Such a table is not intended for card playing.

The fountain tasin in Union Square is now filled with exquisite lilles of many colors and species. The United States Braumeister Association will have its second convention at Terrace Garden on October 15, 16 and 17. At the reception on October 15 Mayor Hewitt will deliver an address of welcome followed by speeches and music.

The tennis grounds in Central Park are now ex-ceedingly crowded, especially on Saturdays, and one is almost obliged to reach them the night before in order to secure a court.

An "improvement on the sewing machine" is sold in the streets for 10 cents. It consists of a long spring which, when properly attached to any sewing machine, it is claimed, will do away with 50 per cent of the exertion expended in working the treadle.

Few New-Yorkers know where "Willow Cottage" in Fifth-ave.; but it is there nevertheless, just below Forty-fourth-st., and anything but an ornament.

The Fifth Avenue Transportation Company, which means the 'busses, employs a man who stands at Forty-second-st, and beckons people on their way from the Grand Central Depot to jump into one of the in waiting. By this enterprising means th Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroad is robbed of many a passenger.

Many drivers of private carriages, having spent the summer at some fashionable resort, politely salute another with their whips as they again drive in Fifth-ave, and the Park.

The mammoth pumpkin blocking up the restaurant door is again a familiar feature of the streets. The chapel of the Rutgers Riverside Presbyter an

Church, at the Boulevard and Seventy-third-st., of which the Rev. Dr. Robert Russell Booth is pastor, will be opened for service to-day.

"Fighting with each other and causing a crowd to collect in front of the Bijou Theatre," was the com-plaint made at Jefferson Market Court yesterday against David Peyser, an agent for Manager Abbey and Wolfe F. Falk, formerly treasurer of the Standard Theatre. The prisoners were discharged.

Next Tuesday will be the first day of registry in Brooklyn, from 7 to 10 a. m. and 3 to 10 p. m. La Grange Brown, the Hicks-st. photographer, remained in jail yesterday, having failed to secure bail. He is entirely broken down by the nervous excitement following his arrest.

Thomas D. Murphy, principal of Grammar School o. 30, in Van Brunt-st., was acquitted yesterday by Justice Massey of an assault on a punit, David Burn-side. The Justice held that Mr. Murphy had not used undue severity and that he had authority for punishing his pupil.

The deeds for 376 parcels of the East Side lands which were sold at auction in May were yesterday submitted by the Park Commissioners to the Corporation Counsel for approvel. The purchasers are obliged to pay 20 per cent on receiving the deeds. The lots lie north of the Eastern Parkway. They brought $385,000. brought $385,000.

THE RECORD OF CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

A STEER TRAMPLING DOWN CHILDREN. A wild steer ran at large through the streets in Brooklyn on Friday evening. It was followed by a crowd of men and women through Cuyler-st., where it dashed into the river and swam about for a time, when it was caught and pulled out. The animal trampled

"What is Worth Doing at All is Worth Doing Well."

The high reputation our Trimmed Millinery enjoys was attained only by faithfully observing the time-honored motto quoted above. Throughout the entire quarter of a century that we have been in business at the same location, thoroughly good workmanship has characterized every production that came from our hands, and we can look back along the stretch of years and see in the progress of our own house a verification of the saying of a distinguished philosopher that "whether a merchant or a manufacturer, a painter or a poet be located in the midst of a great city or in the depth of a great forest, the world will beat a path to his door, if his productions or the goods he has to offer excel the productions or goods of his neighbors." We have always excelled in our Trimmed Millinery, and the ladies of New-York appreciated this fact long ago and patronized us so liberally that our house to-day is known everywhere as the GREATEST MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT ON THE CONTINENT, barring none, and our productions as "THE FINEST MILLINERY IN THE LAND."

With such a proud past, such a prosperous present and such a pleasant prospect for the future, we place in our Show Rooms this season an exhibit of high-class Trimmed Millinery that cannot be rivalled anywhere in styles, quality of workmanship, variety or extent.

All the newest colors, materials and designs will be found in our stock, and everything the heart could wish for in the line of millinery, including many original and exclusive designs that can be had from no other house.

As usual, we display the best assortment in New-York of Fancy Feathers, Feather Bands, Aigrettes, Stiff Wings, Ornaments, Ostrich

Goods, Felt Crowns, &c. Our assortment of Millinery Ribbons is the finest in the country, embracing an unapproachable variety of styles and colorings. All the finest productions from France, England, Switzerland and the United States, including all the new styles of Stripes, Moire and Cashmere effects, will be found in our stock.

And we guarantee that at all times OUR STYLES WILL BE COR-RECT and our prices AS LOW AS THE LOWEST for high-class goods.

The Trade Supplied with Patterns at Wholesale.

COMPLAINT AGAINST A BENEFIT LEAGUE. Moses Hunter, a shipearpenter, living at No. 162 Mentgomery-st., Jersey City, has made complaint Justice Weed against the "Union Benefit League, of New-York, which has its main office at No. 1,441 Broadway. Hunter says that he was induced to join the league by D. Bowers, of No. 343 Eighth-st., Jersey City, who told him that upon the payment of thirty cents a week he would be entitled to a sick benefit of $10 a week and $100 to his heirs in case of death. Hunter made his payments regularly from May 21 until August 27, when he accidentally cut off two of his toes with an adze and was unable to work. When he was able to go out Hunter called at the company's New-York office and says that he found there sitting at a dilapidated desk an old man who told him that he knew nothing about the matter and that he that he knew nothing would have to appeal to the agent. Hunter next called on the agent and says that he was thrown out of the house. Justice Weed will make a thorough investigation of the case.

HIGHWAYMEN ROB A STATION AGENT. At an early hour yesterday morning, as Henry Bogert, station agent at Maygood, N. J., was going home from the railroad station and was passing men, a negro and a white man. One of the robbers time exclaiming: to the railroad company. He was armed, but before he could use his revolver one of the highwaymer setzed his arm and held him firmly, while the com-panion searched floger. The robbers, after securing the revolver and the satchel field, and did not have any difficulty in making their escape.

FOUND DEAD IN THE STREET The body of Edward Crowiey was found on the sidewalk in front of No. 17 Boerum-st., Brooklyn, early yesterday morning. A stream of blood marked the nized. The only marks of violence were on the right

His habits were eccentric, and for some time he had tived in a small room in the Buerum-st, house. His room was poor and uncarpeted, and he lived in to plannest manner. His relatives had for a long till urged him to live with them, but he had alwayefused. An examination showed that his death we the result of heart disease.
